Make a difference. Volunteer—it changes lives.

Volunteer Harford provides personal service to potential volunteers who wish to share their time and talents. We work to match your skills and interests with an agency/organization that needs you.

Volunteer Harford maintains an extensive up-to-date listing of many volunteer service opportunities available in Harford County for individuals, groups and families who want to meet important community needs. Training is generally provided.

We are your connection to life-changing opportunities.

Whether once a year, once a month or once a week—more than 350 exciting and rewarding volunteer jobs are available.

Why Volunteer?

Volunteering means something different to everyone, but it's always worth the effort. Each day, new people in the community are helping to make a difference by lending their time and compassion. Volunteers offer a new chance to build a stronger community and connect people to hope.

It usually starts with a single act of kindness, but it often leads to a lifetime of enriching experiences.

Additional benefits include:

- Flexible opportunities that fit into any schedule
- Uncover hidden skills and talents
- Increase your self-confidence
- Enhance social awareness
- Share your knowledge
- Explore career and personal interests
- Build your resume
- Participate with family, friends and co-workers
- Strengthen your community
- Meet new people
- Have fun
- Personal fulfillment
